Crescent City News

CRESCENT CITY.

Is one of the most beautiful locations in Florida. Tourists will find it an ideal spot to spend the winter, or pass a few days of keen delight.

The town is on Crescent Lake (an arm of the St. Johns River) and is 100 miles by water, and 77 miles by rail from Jacksonville.

The all day river ride on the steamer Crescent, from Jacksonville to Crescent City, is one of the delightful experiences of Florida travel. The steamer leaves Jacksonville at 8 a. m. every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, reaching Crescent City at 6 p. m. This trip is the only daylight ride up the broad and picturesque St. Johns. The steamer has pretty cabins and offers a delightful outlook even in stormy weather.

Crescent City is the center of the orange growing industry in middle Florida, and beautiful groves surround the place. Good hunting and fishing will afford amusement for sportsmen.

Naptha launches can be secured cheaply for water trips. Crescent City has good hotels and boarding houses at moderate rates.

Beautiful shaded walks and bicycle paths.

Personal and Social.

C. C. Slade has moved into the cottage on the Braddock lot.

Mrs. M. J. Crosby and Miss Crosby are now at Warren, Penn.

The water in Lake Stella is lower than before in very many years.

Capt. W. S. Allen and S. J. Hogg of Fruitland were here last Sunday.

W. S. Newbold has been in Jacksonville several days this week on a horse trade.

Mrs. James W. Long is spending a few days at Saratoga on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Wells.

Mrs. Thomas Hinchelliff has gone to Huntsville, Ala., to spend some time with relatives.

C. H. Preston has been spending the week in Macon and Atlanta in the interest of the Preston-Miller Co.

Mrs. J. A. Icenhour of Jacksonville, with her little ones, Mollie and John, has terminated a pleasant week's visit with her sister, Mrs. M. H. Read.

Miss Lucy Gautier left on Friday for Goodall Beach, opposite Daytona, where she will remain some time in the hope of receiving benefit from the salt air.

The Public Library association has recently issued a neat catalogue which will greatly facilitate the selection of books by patrons. The catalogue sells for ten cents per copy.

Wallace Pierpont of Savannah, formerly of this place, was initiated in the order of Hoo Hoo's at Savannah last week, and is now entitled to wear a button on which is the picture of a hunch-backed cat—a black cat.

The Times-Union states that "Miss Louise Gowen has been winning laurels in an athletic way at the Walnut Hill school, Natick, Mass. Her pole vaulting and other accomplishments are so unusually graceful that she has been complimented on all sides."

The Crescent City Orchestra is a musical organization recently organized that is practicing in anticipation of giving the people some excellent music. The orchestra is composed of Miss Hutchinson, pianist, and the Messrs. Ramsdell, Lounds and Shinn.

Miss Katherine Crawford of Stetson University, who is spending the summer here with her mother, Mrs. W. R. Sanders, gave a lunch party to many of her friends last Thursday afternoon and evening. Supper was served to members of the party at Piney Bluff.

For a "dry" town Crescent City is about as "damp" a proposition as can be found in all the country round. Attention is frequently called to this fact by the ease with which the bibulously inclined can acquire a "jag" after arrival in town. Those men seem to find it no trouble at all to secure the liquor, and yet the News can not remember of but one case in the history of the town where a "blind tiger" was "pulled." Are the officers doing their duty?

LAKE COMO.

Mrs. A. J. Smith of Huntington was in town a few days last week visiting her son. She was accompanied by her little grandson.

Dr. Ernest William Diggett visited Como last week.

Capt. C. A. M. Taber, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Prior and son, Charles Henry, leave Friday for their summer home at Wakefield, Mass.

Mrs. J. F. Gable, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. Sullivan and little daughter, Katharine, visited Crescent City last week.

Rain needed badly in this section, continues very hot and dry.

The Mormons passed through Como last week distributing "tracts." They have struck the wrong state to preach their doctrines. It keeps a man on the jump to support one wife here, without following in old Brigham Young's footsteps.

Preaching in the M. E. church Sunday morning by Rev. Mr. Rector. Epworth League meeting in the evening.

C. C. Slade an old citizen of Como now residing at Crescent City, was here last week and spent a day calling on old friends.

Notice.

There has been a rumor circulated around Carleton Colony, purporting that the Basket Picnic to be held there on the Fourth of July, colored people were invited. This is absolutely false—the picnic at Carleton Colony is emphatically for WHITE people and none others.

CARLETON COLONY

To Celebrate the Fourth in Appropriate Manner.

The prosperous Carleton colony is situated three and a half miles west from Edgar on the Florida Southern division of the A. C. L. Railway. It is on the banks of a beautiful lake abounding in fine fish. The place was founded by Mr. G. C. Smith who came here in 1888, bought a large tract of land and grew a promising orange grove. Sometime since Mr. Smith laid out a tract of land in lots 84 x 280 feet and made an effort to secure settlers, particularly old soldiers. The place is now the home of a goodly number of Union veterans, all of whom are delighted with the place. There is a daily mail and Mrs. Mary E. Edger-ton is in charge of the postoffice. There is also a well-supplied provision store kept by J. O. Clarrage.

Religious services are held on the third Sunday of each month by Rev. Mr. Sistrunk of Melrose, who is highly regarded as a preacher and who was accompanied by Mr. Sistrunk and Miss Jackson of Melrose.

Carleton is going to have a Grand Fourth of July celebration and basket picnic and is preparing to entertain all comers in a substantial way. Posters have been issued to all the surrounding country urging people to come and enjoy the day with us. A gleeful club of young people will sing patriotic songs, and Rev. Mr. Sistrunk and Mayor Baldwin of Melrose will be the orators. The glee club is composed, among others, of Misses Lela Goodson, Daisy Price, and Perry, and Messrs. Vause Goodson and Price.

The prospects are excellent for a good crop of fruit and vegetables, and other crops are alike promising, particularly watermelons.

The colony martial band has been extended an invitation to furnish music for a Sunday school picnic at Melrose on the 23d.

NEW COMER.

POMONA.

Mr. Frank Hull and family from Superior, Mo., have arrived in town, and have bought the Ragin place where they are to reside.

Arthur D. Keown was here Thursday bidding his friends good-bye before leaving for McHormon, Mass., where he will resume study at the Moody school. Nellie Keown accompanied him here and is visiting Mrs. C. A. Knowlton.

Misses Katie Owen and Lulu Gunter and Mr. Ernest Owen of Satsuma visited friends in town Sunday.

Miss Pauline Watson and sister of Palatka are visiting their cousin, Miss Ruby Tucker.

Rev. B. Byron, wife and little daughter from New Smyrna, were registered at the Middleton house last week.

Prof. H. E. Wakefield departed Sunday for Knoxville, Tenn., to attend summer school in that city.

R. C. Middleton has a pianola attached to his piano, and is now able to entertain his friends in royal style.

Word is received here that Rev. M. C. Welch has been ill and confined to the house ever since reaching his home in Hartford, Conn., several weeks ago.

Master Talmage Middleton has terminated his visit and returned to his home in Hortense, Ga.
